Explore Yorkshire in 2022

We are pleased to be back promoting our beautiful county, whether it be to visitors on a day trip or short break, or to those lucky enough to live here. Yorkshire is abundant with places to visit, attractions, shops and eateries to appeal to every taste and within this guide we have collated some of the best ideas of how to spend your time here. Several of our advertisers have offered great discount vouchers to help save you a little of your hard-earned cash and you will find these in the centre pages so that they are easy to pull out and keep with you.

For more information and great offers as well as the latest news and events please visit our website www.goyorkshire.com or why not sign up to our quarterly e-magazines to keep you informed of what is happening throughout the year.

Go Yorkshire - One visit is definitely not enough!

KEEPING THE STORIES OF COAL MINING ALIVE

Pop on a hard hat and lamp then join us on an adventure 140 m underground into England's last deep coal mine, talking to charismatic former-miners as they tell the tales of their careers. Then explore the galleries, meet the ponies, walk through the woods and let off steam in the adventure playground.
